

Welcome to ENGL 1301/INRW 0300!

Start Here!

Hi! My name is Emily Gilbert. Welcome to my co-req ENGL1301/INRW0300 class. If you need to contact me during the semester, use the remind app or email me at egilbert@southplainscollege.edu. You can also come by my office at REESE at 307A, and I'm there Mondays and Wednesdays 9-9:30, 12:15-1:45, Thursdays 6-7 or on Zoom Mondays from 2:30-5 or by appt.

ENGL 1301: Composition I Syllabus

Department: English and Philosophy

ENGL 1301 Course Description: This course is an intensive study and practice of the composition process from invention and researching to drafting, revising, and editing, both individually and collaboratively. The curriculum includes the teaching of effective rhetorical modes as well as audience, purpose, arrangement, style, and collateral readings. The instructional focus is on writing the academic essay as a vehicle for learning, communicating, and critical analysis.

ENGL 1301 partially satisfies a Core Curriculum Requirement: Communications Foundational Component Area (010)

Core Curriculum Objectives addressed:

- Communications skills—to include effective written, oral and visual communication
- Critical thinking skills—to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
- Teamwork—to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal
- Personal Responsibility—to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of individual and collaborative writing processes.
2. Write essays that exhibit logic, unity, development, and coherence.
3. Develop ideas with appropriate support and attribution.
4. Write in a style appropriate to the audience and purpose.
5. Read, reflect, and respond critically to a variety of texts.
6. Use American English, with an emphasis on correct grammar, voice, parallelism, punctuation, spelling, and mechanics in language appropriate for academic essays.
7. Write a minimum of six 500-word essays.

South Plains College
ENGL 1301 + INRW 0300 Corequisite Courses

INRW 0300: Integrated Reading and Writing Syllabus

Departments: English and Philosophy/The Teaching and Learning Center

INRW 0300 Course Description: INRW 0300 serves as a paired support course for students enrolled in ENGL 1301 who are not yet TSI-complete in reading and/or writing. The focus is on teaching students critical reading and academic writing skills to equip them for success in Composition I. Successful completion of this course fulfills TSI requirements for reading and/or writing.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Locate explicit textual information, draw complex inferences, and describe, analyze, and evaluate the information within and across multiple texts of varying lengths.
 2. Comprehend and use vocabulary effectively in oral communication, reading, and writing.
 3. Identify and analyze the audience, purpose, and message across a variety of texts.
 4. Describe and apply insights gained from reading and writing a variety of texts.
 5. Compose a variety of texts that demonstrate reading comprehension, clear focus, logical development of ideas, and use of appropriate language that advance the writer's purpose.
 6. Determine and use effective approaches and rhetorical strategies for given reading and writing situations.
 7. Generate ideas and gather information relevant to the topic and purpose, incorporating the ideas and words of other writers in student writing using established strategies.
 8. Evaluate relevance and quality of ideas and information in recognizing, formulating, and developing a claim.
 9. Develop and use effective reading and revision strategies to strengthen the writer's ability to compose college-level writing assignments.
- Recognize and apply the conventions of Standard English in reading and writing.

80% – 89% = B

0% – 59% = F

70% – 79% = C

You must make a C or better in the course to be TSI Compliant.

Your grade will be based on the following percentages:

Final Drafts (6 of them)	65%	Quizzes	13%
Outlines and Review	7%	Participation	5%
Peer Reviews	10%

Important Policies

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Special Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Special Services Coordinator. For more information, call or visit Dawn Valles in the Special Services Office, RC Building 8, 806-716-4675

Diversity Statement In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respect of multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Photo Release As a student in this class, I understand that my image may appear in photographs, and things I've said or written may be used by the South Plains College Teaching and Learning Center for the purpose of illustrating class activities and the content of this course. If you wish to refuse this photo release, write I refuse photo release after your signature on page 7.

The intention of the master syllabus is to provide an outline of the contents of this course, as specified by faculty of the Reading Department at South Plains College, regardless of who teaches the course, when it is taught or where it is taught. Faculty members teaching this course for South Plains College are expected to facilitate learning pursuant to the course objectives. However, instructors also are encouraged to cover additional topics of interest so long as those topics are relevant to the course's subject. The master syllabus is, therefore, prescriptive in nature but also allows for a diversity of individual approaches to course material.
